

Application for Tenure and Promotion to Associate Professor
Timothy Barnett-Queen, Ph.D.

Executive Summary

RESEARCH AND SCHOLARLY ACTIVITIES

- Primary Research Foci: Learning Technology and Social Work Education
- More than 11 Publications (including three forthcoming)

Eight refereed journal articles (including two forthcoming)
Three chapters in edited books (including one forthcoming)
Three articles in national refereed conference proceedings

- Research Awards

College of Health and Social Services Best Research Publication Award, 2001
College of Health and Social Services Best Research Publication Award, 2002

TEACHING

- Teach Social Work courses including undergraduate and graduate Generalist Practice, Human Behavior and the Social Environment and Research Methods.
- 80% of course teaching evaluations above departmental mean
- Recognition of Outstanding Teaching

Selected Graduate Student SW Association 2000-2001 “Outstanding Teacher”
Selected Roswell MSW Cohort 2001 “Outstanding Teacher”
Social Work Practice values and ethics pedagogy singled out as “exemplary” by 2004 re-accreditation site-team.

SERVICE AND LEADERSHIP

- Serve as chair or member of more than 5 School of Social Work Faculty Committees
- Serve as Faculty advisor to the Graduate Student Social Work Association (2 years as advisor)
- Serve as facilitator of NMSU’s Learning Technologies Usergroup (3 years as facilitator)