DENNIS W. DARNALL FACULTY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
2011 Nomination Form

Name of Person Nominated for the Award:__________________________________________________

Name of Person Nominating the above:_____________________________________________________

Date of the Nomination:_________________________________________________________________

The person(s) making the nomination should prepare a nomination letter of no more than four pages encompassing the nominee's entire career (research, teaching and service). The document may include any information the nominator considers pertinent, but the information provided should take into careful consideration the Guidelines and Criteria for Selection of the Award Winner stated below. The nominee must be a current faculty member of NMSU. Nominations should be sent to:

Chair, Overview Committee
Dennis W. Darnall Faculty Achievement Award
Office of the Executive Vice President & Provost
Box 30001, MSC 3445
Las Cruces, NM  88003
or by email to: ybaca@nmsu.edu

Nominations must be postmarked no later than Friday, October 21, 2011. Any questions regarding the award should be directed to the chair at the above address or to (505) 646-2127.

Guidelines and Criteria for Selection of the Award Winner

Teaching:
Student evaluation data, letters from former students, achievements of former students, peer teaching evaluations, activities in professional organizations relative to teaching, publications relevant to teaching, organizing and participating in education projects, educational grants, letters of recommendation from professional colleagues, teaching awards.

Research and Creativity:
Research papers, research monographs and books, artistic creations, directing research of master's and Ph.D. students, research grants, activities in professional organizations relative to research, letters of recommendation from professional colleagues, research awards, invited lectures, performances or exhibits.

Service:
To the university: committee work, organizing and participating in special university projects, administrative work, university service awards.

Professional: activities in professional organizations, refereeing research papers, reviewing books, reviewing grant proposals, professional service awards.

Community: activities in service and civic groups; participation in one or more of the following--public school projects, governmental projects, church activities that contribute to the community good, community economic projects, community arts projects, community health projects, community education projects; community service awards.