FACULTY SEMINAR IN WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM
SUMMER INTERIM, MAY 14-17, 2012
APPLICATION

Name: _____________________________________________________________

Office __________ Office Telephone _______ E-mail ______________________

College __________ Position Title __________ Department ________________

Please Specify: 9 or 12 month contract __________________________

Tenured Tenure-track College Administrator Years at NMSU____

Graduate degrees held and in what fields: _____________________________

_________________________________________________________________

Titles of courses that you teach: ______________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

State briefly your reasons for wanting to participate: ___________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

List the ways in which you already incorporate student writing into your courses: ________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

List typical student writing problems that you would like the workshop to consider: ______

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________

Return Applications to:
WAC c/o Patti Wojahn
pwojahn@nmsu.edu
MSC 3E English
Application Deadline: April 20, 2012